Litany of Dedication The Church Has Left the Building

The church is not a place; it is a people.

The church is not only a steeple above the treeline, streets, and cars.

Rather, it is a people proclaiming to the world that we are here for the work of healing and of justice.

The church is not walls built stone upon stone, held together by mortar

but rather person, linked with person, linked with person:

all ages and genders and abilities—

a community built on the foundation of reason, faith, and love.

The church is not just a set of doors open on Sunday morning,

but the commitment day after day, and moment after moment,

of our hearts creaking open the doors of welcome

to the possibility of new experience and radical welcome.

The church is not simply a building, a steeple, a pew.

The church is the gathering together of all the people, and experiences,
and fear, and love, and hope in our resilient hearts;

gathering, however we can, to say to the world:

welcome, come in, lay down your heartache, and pick up hope and love.

For the church is us—each and every one of us—together,

a beacon of hope to this world in Jesus’ name.

Come As You Are

Verse 1

Come find your mercy. O sinner come kneel.
Earth has no sorrow that Heaven can't heal.
Earth has no sorrow that Heaven can't heal.

Chorus

So lay down your burdens, lay down your shame.
All who are broken lift up your face.
O wanderer come home. You're not too far.
So lay down your hurt, lay down your heart.
Come as you are.

Verse 2

There's hope for the hopeless and all those who've strayed.
Come sit at the table come taste the grace.
There's rest for the weary, rest that endures.
Earth has no sorrow that Heaven can't cure.

So lay down your burdens, lay down your shame.
All who are broken lift up your face.
O wanderer come home. You're not too far.
So lay down your hurt, lay down your heart.

When we sing to God in heaven
We shall find such harmony
Born of all we've known together

Walk the mile and bear the load.

In the night time of your fear.
I will hold my hand out to you,
Speak the peace you long to hear.

Lead On Good Shepherd

Verse 1

Well I've been turned 'round, But I've never been lost.
Seen the water get troubled, But we walked across.
When my knees were shaking You
held my hand,
Turning my problems
To a promised land.

Chorus

Lead on Good Shepherd.
I'll follow all my days.
There ain't nothing sweeter
Than to watch You make a way. You've walked me through the valley, But You never steered me wrong. So lead on Good Shepherd, lead on.

Verse 2

Seen some mighty deep canyons That You brought me through. Seen some mighty big mountains That just up and moved.
Glory, glory hallelujah!
Yeah that's my song.
Walking with my Father
Into the great unknown.

Chorus

Lead on Good Shepherd.
I'll follow all my days.
There ain't nothing sweeter
Than to watch You make a way. You've walked me through the valley, But You never steered me wrong. So lead on Good

Matthew 4:23-25

Jesus went throughout Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom and curing every disease and every sickness among the people. So his fame spread throughout all Syria, and they brought to him all the sick, those who were afflicted with various diseases and pains, demoniacs, epileptics, and paralytics, and he cured them. And great crowds followed him from Galilee, the Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea, and from beyond the Jordan.

Mark 7:24-37

From there he set out and went away to the region of Tyre. He entered a house and did not want anyone to know he was there. Yet he could not escape notice, but a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit immediately heard about him, and she came and bowed down at his feet. Now the woman was a Gentile, of Syrophenician origin. She begged him to cast the demon out of her daughter. He said to her, "Let the children be fed first, for it is not fair to take the children's food and throw it to the dogs." But she answered him, "Sir, even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs." Then he said to her, "For saying that, you may go—the demon has left your daughter." So she went home, found the child lying on the bed, and the demon gone.

Then he returned from the region of Tyre, and went by way of Sidon towards the Sea of Galilee, in the region of the Decapolis. They brought to him a deaf man who had an impediment in his speech; and they begged him to lay his hand on him. He took him aside in private, away from the crowd, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spat and touched his tongue. Then looking up to heaven, he sighed and said to him, "Ephphatha," that is, "Be opened." And immediately his ears were opened, his tongue was released, and he spoke plainly. Then Jesus ordered them to tell no one; but the more he ordered them, the more zealously they proclaimed it. They were astounded beyond measure, saying, "He has done everything well; he even makes the deaf to hear and the mute to speak."

Changes to Office Staff

We have changes in our office staff as Courtney, our office manager, has left for a new job.

We welcome our new Office Temp, Caitlin Naranja, while she searches for full time positions! She graduated this past spring from Virginia Commonwealth University with a Bachelor of Science in Health Services. Caitlin has worked for several years as one of Trinity's Sunday childcare providers. Caitlin is helping to keep the office running smoothly while we finalize the new Operations Manager position (which we have been working on for the past several months).

If you have announcements, prayer requests, Moments for Mission, or anything else for the bulletin, please send an email to both officetemp@trinityarlington.org AND pastorjudith@trinityarlington.org. (If you use the office e-mail it will be forwarded to the office temp). Thank you for your patience as people adjust to new roles and the staff collaborate to make Sunday worship happen. The sermon podcast will not be available in August but will be back in September.

We also welcome a part-time bookkeeper, Yolanda Darden. Yolanda has experience working with churches and is looking forward to using her skills to help support the ministry of our church.

Social Media Photograph Release Form (please fill this out!)

The Outreach ministry would like to be able to use more photos of Trinity members in action on our website and social media platforms. We respect that some people would prefer to not have their images on public platforms, so we are asking for a simple photo release from each Trinity household. To sign the release, you can use the Church Connect link (or the QR code below) to the right and scroll until you see the Photograph Release Form. As a reminder, Church Connect is your one stop shop! See below for how to add a quick link to your phone (just like an app) or bookmark on your computer if you have not already done so! We can also fill out the form for you if you don't have easy access to Church Connect, please ask church office and we will do so.

Church Connect: Trinity's Official One Stop Shop!

Looking for the calendar, announcements, bulletin, giving platform? We now have a one stop shop for Trinity members called Church Connect, which you have already used to sign up for the online directory! Church Connect is also a portal that you can link (like an app) on your phone, or bookmark on your computer (it is called "Connect")! In the fall we will be using this portal regularly for members and visitors so access it now and get ahead of the game! Church Connect is your secure portal to the bulletin, directory, enews, giving, sign ups, announcements, prayer requests and more! How do you access it? Glad you asked! Just go to tpcarlington.churchtrac.com to put the webpage on your phone (like an app) for easier access here are some simple instructions. If you have questions or need help, contact Patrick Merkel.
