February 23, 2025

Seventh Sunday after Epiphany

Welcome.

We are glad that you are here.

As an inclusive community of faith, we welcome you just as you are. We celebrate that God's love and grace extends to all, and affirm that each person has sacred worth.

So take a moment.

Breathe.

Call to Worship

Take delight in the lord, who satisfied the desires of your heart.

Commit your way to the Lord and trust in God's actions.

Be still before the Lord and wait patiently for God.

The Lord is our salvation and our refuge in times of trouble.

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Merciful God, we confess

That we have not followed your ways

Or trusted your promises.

We tend to love only those who love us;

We reserve our kindness for those who are kind to us;

We often give in the expectation of receiving something in return.

Forgive us, Lord, for the times we miss the mark of living the Jesus way of life.

Fill our hearts with your love,

a love that flows freely for all people, even those who are difficult to love.

Change our lives with your grace.

We pray in the name and spirit of Jesus, Amen.

Words of Assurance and Faith

Friends, rejoice in the good news of the gospel.
In Jesus Christ we are forgiven. Thanks be to God!

Translation from Swahili
Lord, God, O Father,
In faith we pray for love and peace
Forever, we thank you, forever.
Tod, thank you!
Sky, earth, Valley, hill,
Trees, flowers, Sun, stars.
O Tod, thank you!
Lord, God, O Father,
In faith we pray for love and peace.
Forever, we thank you. forever.

Life of the Church, Joys and Concerns

Prayers of the People and Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come,
thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors;

and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Doxology #606

Praise God, From Whom All Blessings Flow

Prayer of Dedication

God of abundant mercy,
You alone can turn evil into good,
sorrow into rejoicing,
and death into everlasting life.
Teach us your way of grace –
To meet hatred with kindness,
To answer curses with blessing,
To love without holding back,
To give without thought of return;
All in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hymn #371 New Songs of Celebration Render

1 New songs of celebration render to God who has great wonders done;
love sits enthroned in ageless splendor;
come and adore the mighty One.
God has made known the great salvation which all the saints with joy confess.
God has revealed to every nation truth and unending righteousness.

2 Joyfully, heartily resounding, let every instrument and voice peal out the praise of grace abounding, calling the whole world to rejoice.
Trumpets and organs, set in motion such sounds as make the heavens ring;
all things that live in earth and ocean, sound forth the song; your praises bring.

3 Rivers and seas and torrents roaring, honor the Lord with wild acclaim;
mountains and stones, look up adoring,
and find a voice to praise God's name.
Righteous, commanding, ever glorious, praises be sung that never cease:
just is our God, whose truth victorious establishes the world in peace.

Hymn #343 Where Cross the Crowded Ways of Life

1 Where cross the crowded ways of life, where sound the cries of race and clan, above the noise of selfish strife,
we hear your voice, O Son of Man.

2 In haunts of wretchedness and need,
on shadowed thresholds fraught with fears,
from paths where hide the lures of greed,
we catch the vision of your tears.

3 From tender childhood's helplessness, from human grief and burdened toil,
from famished souls, from sorrow's stress,
your heart has never known recoil.

4 The cup of water given for you still holds the freshness of your grace; yet long these multitudes to view the sweet compassion of your face.

5 O Master, from the mountainside, make haste to heal these hearts of pain;
among these restless throngs abide;
O tread the city's streets again;

6 Till all the world shall learn your love, and follow where your feet have trod;
till glorious from your heaven above shall come the city of our God.

Hymn #754 Help Us Accept Each Other

1 Help us accept each other as Christ accepted us;
teach us as sister, brother,
each person to embrace.
Be present, Lord, among us and bring us to believe we are ourselves accepted, and meant to love and live.

2 Teach us, O Lord, your lessons, as in our daily life we struggle to be human and search for hope and faith.
Teach us to care for people,
for all, not just for some,
to love them as we find them,
or as they may become.

3 Let your acceptance change us, so that we may be moved in living situations to do the truth in love;
to practice your acceptance until we know by heart
the table of forgiveness, and laughter's healing art.

4 Lord, for today's encounters with all who are in need, who hunger for acceptance,
for justice and for bread,
we need new eyes for seeing,
new hands for holding on:
renew us with your Spirit;
Lord, free us; make us one!

Psalm 37:1-11, 39-40

Do not fret because of the wicked; do not be envious of wrongdoers, for they will soon fade like the grass, and wither like the green herb.

Trust in the LORD, and do good; so you will live in the land, and enjoy security.

Take delight in the LORD, and he will give you the desires of your heart.

Commit your way to the LORD; trust in him, and he will act.

He will make your vindication shine like the light, and the justice of your cause like the noonday.

Be still before the LORD, and wait patiently for him; do not fret over those who prosper in their way, over those who carry out evil devices.

Refrain from anger, and forsake wrath. Do not fret—it leads only to evil.

For the wicked shall be cut off, but those who wait for the LORD shall inherit the land.

Yet a little while, and the wicked will be no more; though you look diligently for their place, they will not be there.

But the meek shall inherit the land, and delight themselves in abundant prosperity.

The salvation of the righteous is from the LORD; he is their refuge in the time of trouble.

The LORD helps them and rescues them; he rescues them from the wicked, and saves them, because they take refuge in him.

Luke 6:27-38

“But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you.” If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. If you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same. If you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to receive as much again. But love your enemies, do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return. Your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High; for he is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked. Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.

“Do not judge, and you will not be judged; do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven; give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap; for the measure you give will be the measure you get back.”

Announcements in the Life of the Church February 2025

Pastoral Care During a Time of Transition and Change

Many in our congregation are experiencing uncertainty and transition right now and the church staff will respond in various ways over the coming weeks and months.

This past Friday, February 21st we hosted a drop-in group at 7:00 pm in the Lewis Room that we called “Pizza and Prayer,” a time and a place for support and sharing for those in our community who are affected by the changes that are happening at this time or by those yet to be determined. We will continue to meet on Fridays at 7:00 p.m. until further notice.

People are impacted in many different ways, and we will continue to look for pathways to provide support and care for one another. In addition, Pastor Judith has been available on Saturdays since February 8th for individual counseling and prayer. Please e-mail her directly to set up an appointment at pastorjudith@trinityarlington.org.

Celebrate Black History Month by supporting a local black-owned business. This list of local restaurants was shared by a new family in our community who have been attending Trinity over the past several months. Thank you, Jaimey, for these recommendations.

VBS Registration is OPEN

June 23rd – 27th from 9 am - Noon

Cost: $100 per child

We are still looking for volunteers, so please consider joining us, even for a couple of days. Scholarships are available for families that need help with the cost. Contact trinityarlingtonvbs@gmail.com

Trinity's Spring Membership Class begins on February 23

Trinity's Membership Class provides an opportunity for interested individuals to become acquainted with our church and for prospective members to learn about membership. The class is led by pastor Judith and elder Jim Dykstra, who are both available to answer any questions you may have and help you get connected at Trinity.

The class will be held over a six-week period beginning February 23 and meets in the Kinzer Room, across the hall from the back of the sanctuary. The class meets during the Sunday school hour from 10:10 a.m. - 11:00 a.m. There is childcare available in our church nursery during that time. The schedule for the Spring class is:

February 23	Getting to Know You
March 2	How do you spell Presbyterian?
March 9	(No Class – Annual Meeting)
March 16	What does Membership Mean?
March 23	Connect. Grow. Serve (Getting Involved at Trinity)

Following these initial four classes we invite you to attend a two-week class open to the whole congregation. During this two-week class, you will meet representatives from each of Trinity's ministry teams and hear about what our Ministries are currently doing and ways you can participate in our collective ministry as a church.

March 30 Our Shared Ministry (Opportunities to Serve) Part I
April 6 Our Shared Ministry (Opportunities to Serve) Part II

You do not have to attend every class to become a member at Trinity, but this is a great way to get to know other church members and the leadership of Trinity.

Annual Congregational Meeting and Fellowship Lunch: Sunday, March 9th

Mark your calendar for March 9th when we will have one, combined worship at 10:00 a.m. led by the Youth, followed by the Annual Meeting, and then lunch!

The Annual Meeting Lunch is a great time for fellowship and food! The Fellowship Ministry Group will provide the main dish and drinks and everyone is encouraged to bring a side or dessert to share. Please sign up to help set up tables on Saturday afternoon, March 8th, or with clean-up on Sunday following the event...you can even use this QR code sign up for both!!! We look forward to seeing you there.

Massannetta Springs Capital Campaign. Massannetta has been an important place for Trinity Presbyterian over many years of camps, retreats, and conferences attended by Trinity members.

Massannetta is upgrading its facilities so that groups like ours have nicer accommodation when we have more than will fit in the lodge. It also has a much broader ministry than accommodating church groups. Since 2016 they have been providing temporary housing for refugees who are relocating to the Shenandoah Valley. Their most recent work in this area is in partnership with Church World Service. Watch a great video and learn more at <https://massanettasprings.org/bpa>. Due to our long-standing relationship and love of Massannetta, the Session has committed to matching member gifts with this fund-raising campaign up to $5,000. Please e-mail Pastor Judith or Jim Dykstra to let them know of your contribution so we can match it.

2025 Stewardship Campaign Results

We have exciting results to share from our 2025 Stewardship Campaign. As you may recall our goal was to increase contributions to the Operating Fund by 11% over the next two years. As of mid-January, the pledges to the Operating Fund for 2025 have already increased by 10%. There are still a few families who intend to pledge for 2025, but have not yet done so, thus we expect this number to increase even more. This increase in pledges comes from a broad group of contributors. Over 75 families increased their pledge over last year.

These pledges will allow Trinity to prepare its budget for the upcoming fiscal year knowing that it has the financial support of the Congregation to achieve the goals set out by the Session.

We are so grateful to everyone who submitted a pledge thus far. If you did not submit a pledge, we still encourage you to do so online or by emailing Carol Hart our treasurer at treasurer@trinityarlington.org.

Spiritual Formation Opportunities

New Adult Sunday School Class

Be Not Afraid: A consideration of voices from various faith traditions

Led by Priscilla Hoffman-Stowe and Sue Bodner in the Lewis Room. This class will offer an opportunity to consider new ideas or practices that could deepen our faith and inform our spiritual journeys. They also will help us learn from other faiths how we can build a more loving, peaceful world together. Hard questions will be encouraged! In each class, we will hear the writings of an author, poet, religious leader, or mystic. There will be an opportunity for discussion and questions.

Each week, we will have a 10-minute silent meditation as part of the class.

Bible Chat

Our informal Wednesday night Bible study meets on Wednesdays at 7:30 p.m. in Classroom A. The group is part of the way through the Gospel of John, but that should not stop you from joining us. Ben is the point person for the group, so if you want more information or would like to let him know you'll be joining the group, email him at ben@trinityarlington.org.

Meditation Group Please join us!

The meditation group will continue meeting in the Meditation Room on Sunday mornings. The meeting time is 10:10 am-11:00 am. We will be learning more about Meditation philosophy and practice. We will do meditation together for a total of 30 minutes, across each meeting. We will be in silence, listen to audio guided meditation, or have quiet music for our meditation time, and we will share together about what we are learning.

Everyone is welcome for one meeting or all of them. If you are looking for a small group connection at Trinity but don't like to talk or listen to others talk all the time, this may be your group! For talkers and non-talkers, it is sometimes a surprise what the silence may bring, including a deepening spiritual connection with God and others in the group.

Caregivers Support Group

This weekly Zoom call with other caregivers, Pastor Judith, and Katherine Nichols (Commissioned Ruling Elder), is a place to talk, get strength from each other, and pray. Weekly Zoom calls happen on Tuesdays, noon -1:00 p.m. Contact Pastor Judith or Katherine to get on the email list or see the e-news or announcements in the church app for the Zoom link.

Just Coffee in the Knox Room (Preschool Building)

It is a place and a time to gather informally during the Sunday School hour to drink coffee, eat pastries, and get to know people.

Sunday Afternoon Virtual Coffee Hour

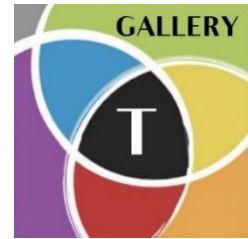

Sundays at 4:00 p.m. Pastor Judith and Katherine Nichols host a zoom chat. We talk about what happened in worship, the sermon, and just about anything else you can think of. See the Wednesday e-news or announcements in the church app for the link.

Horizons Women's Bible Study

We gather on the 4th Tuesday of each month. Our next meeting will take place on Tuesday, February 25th at 7:00 pm in the Meditation Room.

Gallery T is seeking entries for a new exhibit. The theme of this exhibit will be “HOPE” - defined in any way you wish to interpret it.

Submissions should be made to the Church Office by March 9th. Please remember to include information regarding the media of your work along with a description and your name. If you have any questions, please contact Donna Parry at the.parrys@Comcast.net or Carol Feather Martin at music@trinity.org.

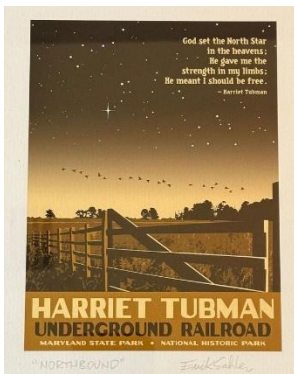

Lunch for Homeless Individuals: attention 2nd-5th graders

Today, (Sunday, February 23rd) at 10:00 a.m. we will make bagged lunches for homeless individuals in Arlington through Path Forward.

This event has been well received by lots of our youth, and we're excited to now bring it to this age group. You don't need neighborhood listservs or social media groups, as we know these events are of interest to others. ALL ARE WELCOME!!

Day Trip in March to Harriet Tubman Visitor Center

The Racial Justice Ministry is sponsoring a one-day trip to the Eastern Shore, to visit sights of the secret network's most famous “conductor” of the underground railroad, Harriet Tubman, who was born enslaved, grew up, and honed the skills—such as trapping, hunting, and using stars to navigate—she used to escape to freedom.

The trip will be Saturday, March 22. We will meet at Trinity about 7:15 am and carpool to the Harriet Tubman Visitor Center. From there we will be in vans for a tour of historical landmarks and hear stories about Harriet. This will be led by local guides Alex and Lisa Green, and followed by a homemade, all you can eat Eastern Shore Meal. The price of the trip is $80 per person (half price for kids under 15). Please don't let the price scare you. If you want to go and this won't fit in your budget, Trinity will provide scholarships. This will be a fun, educational trip with the fellowship of the Trinity family. For further details, email Donna Parry at the.parrys@comcast.net. Please sign up ASAP!!

4th and 5th Grade Group

This group meets once a month and is a time for our fourth and fifth graders to get to know each other outside of Sunday school. We will play games and talk about life and faith. Led by Ben and Keeley, the next gathering will be on March 2nd, from 4:00 p.m. - 5:30 p.m. For more information please contact either Ben at Ben@trinityarlington.org or Keeley at youth@trinityarlington.org.

Youth 6-12th grade meets each Sunday at 10:10 am for Sunday School and from 5:30 p.m. – 7:00 p.m. for weekly Youth Group activities.

NO Youth Group Meeting Tonight

Trinity adults: consider signing up to chaperone at Sunday evening Youth Group! Let Keeley know if you are interested or have any questions.

Ways to Serve in the Community and in the Church

Consider Serving as an Elder on Session

An Opportunity to Serve, to Lead, to Discern, to Connect, to Shepherd....

It is the time of the year when the church seeks to call new elders to serve as members of the church's leadership body (known as the Session). Perhaps you are called for this opportunity or know someone you think would do a great job. Sometimes people think the role of elder is reserved for the most organized, most vocal, or strongest leader, but the role of elder is to teach, guide, protect, and love us, the sheep of the church.

Please click here to learn more: <https://lp.constantcontactpages.com/cu/X2yeLtf/Elder>.

If you are interested, please talk to any active or former Session member or a member of the Nominating Committee. Members of the Nominating Committee are: Pam Michell (Chair) - Pamelalmichell@gmail.com, Patrick Merkel (Vice-Chair) - patrick@merkelfamily.com, Amy Arnold, Leslie Bradenham, Alaina Desautels, Mac Greer, and Todd Parker.

Upcoming Fellowship Volunteer Opportunities

Fellowship Ministry is looking for volunteers to coordinate an upcoming gathering. Opportunities include Easter potluck brunch and the June 8th picnic. Detailed instructions are available – no experience required! Please text Ellen Greer (202-236-1300) or email trinityfellowshipmin@gmail.com for more details and to volunteer!

Serving with S.O.M.E.

Trinity has been preparing breakfast for over 30+ years on the 3rd Monday of the month for SOME (So Others May Eat <https://some.org/get-involved/volunteer/>) in DC. They have recently completed a renovation of the kitchen, dining room and building at 71 O Street NW.

TPC resumed this local mission support last December. Breakfast preparation consists of 3-4 people arriving at 6:00 a.m. (finishing by 7:30 a.m.) and cooking eggs, sausages, grits and other duties as needed. It's a great way to start the morning and support people in need. Visit the sign-up genius link to volunteer (calendar set up through Dec. 2025) - for more information contact Todd Parker (703-237-7699). <https://signup.com/go/eahNdeL>

Get Connected:

Social Media Photograph Release Form (please fill this out!)

The Outreach ministry would like to be able to use more photos of Trinity members "in action" on our website and social media platforms. We respect that some people would prefer not to have their images on public platforms, so we are asking for a simple photo release from each Trinity household.

Use the Church Connect link to review and sign the Photograph Release Form.

Do You Have Items for the Bulletin?

Reminder that if you have announcements, prayer requests, Moments for Mission, or anything else for the bulletin, please send an email to office@trinityarlington.org only. For announcements to be put in the bulletin for Sundays, please send them no later than noon on Wednesdays.

Thank you for helping to keep our community informed!
