Call to Worship

We have gathered today in search of reformation.

We want to reform ourselves, our church, and our society.

We stand fearless at the edge of change.

For God is in the midst of us and we shall not be moved.

Be still, and know that God is God.

God is our rock and our redeemer.

Hymn #316

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Loving God,

you promise that all who faithfully confess to you will be forgiven and preserved from trouble.

Trusting in your mercy,

we acknowledge the harm that we have done, and the good we have failed to do.

Forgive us, we pray;

guide us in your truth, and teach us the way to go,
that we may love and serve you well.

In Jesus' name. Amen.

Invitation to the Table

Christ's table is wide, and his welcome is for all.
This is not a Presbyterian Table. This is not Trinity Church's Table.
This is the Lord's table, and all who feel called to respond to Christ's invitation, are welcome.
There is a place for you at this table, whether you have ever communed with Trinity before, and wherever you are on your faith journey.
You are welcome, period.

Joys and Concerns

Great Prayer of Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.
Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give God thanks and praise.

We thank you God, for your infinite love.
You have created us in your image, called us as your Beloved children, and made Covenant to be our God.
You have judged the forces of oppression and injustice, and set us free from all that diminishes life.
You have sent us your saints, women and children and men rooted in your grace, who have shone the light of your love in our world.
And you have sent us Christ, who gathers us at your table.
We come in joy and thanksgiving, and with all your saints we sing your praise.

(repeat sung phrases as directed by the pastor)

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest..

We thank you especially this day for those who have been a part of this community of faith
And who have died since our last All Saints celebration...

George Graham, Bob Knowlton, and Craig Savage.

Now, in this moment of worship and remembrance we lift up to you names of others who have died this year who have been important to those who are worshiping here today...
(names spoken aloud...)

Blessed are all who come in your name, and blessed is Jesus, your Christ.
Jesus lived in your love, trusted your grace, and flowed freely with your mercy;
he gathered a community built on your grace, open to all.
Remembering these, your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving as a living and holy sacrifice, in union with Christ's offering for us.
Pour out your Holy Spirit on these gifts of bread and cup, that they may be for us the body and blood of Christ.
Pour out your Holy Spirit on us, that we may be for the world the Body of Christ, made holy by your grace, and made witnesses to that grace by your Spirit in us, in the name and the company of Christ.
We pray, using the words he taught us:

Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come,
thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our debts,

as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Prayerful Setting of Intentions

(Please take this moment of silence to set an intention for the week ahead. Your intention might be a response to today's worship, or it may be something that has been on your heart – a desire for change, an inner nudging, a move toward deeper discipleship. Write your intention down or note it on your phone and take it with you as you go.)

Prayer for the Coming Week

Loving God, giver of all good gifts,
I go into this week
aware of all those who have supported me in my life of faith.
Help me to live out
the sacred calling of the gospel, and to heal any wounds I have caused. Amen.

Benediction

Postlude

For All the Saints
(Based on Hymn #326)
setting by Wayne Wold

Carol Feather Martin

We invite you to stay for the postlude. However, you are also welcome to leave quietly.

Hymn #316

1 Where charity and love prevail, there God is ever found;
brought here together by Christ's love,
by love we thus are bound.

2 Let us recall that in our midst dwells Christ, God's holy Son.
As members of each body joined,
in him we are made one.

3 Let strife among us be unknown;
let all contentions cease.
Be God's the glory that we seek;
be his our only peace.

4 Let us forgive each other's faults as we our own confess, that we may love each other well in Christian gentleness.

5 Love can exclude no race or creed
if honored be God's name;
our common life embraces all whose Maker is the same.

Hymn #415

1 Come, ye sinners, poor and needy, weak and wounded, sick and sore;
Jesus ready stands to save you,
full of pity, love, and power.

Refrain:
I will arise and go to Jesus;
he will embrace me in his arms.
In the arms of my dear Savior,
O there are ten thousand charms.

2 Come, ye thirsty, come, and welcome;
God's free bounty glorify, true belief and true repentance, every grace that brings you nigh. (Refrain)

3 Come, ye weary, heavy laden, lost and ruined by the fall;

if you tarry till you're better,
you will never come at all. (Refrain)

4 Let not conscience make you linger, nor of fitness fondly dream;
all the fitness he requireth is to feel your need of him. (Refrain)

Hymn #326

1 For all the saints who from their labors rest, who thee by faith before the world confessed, thy name, O Jesus, be forever blest.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

2 Thou wast their rock, their fortress, and their might;
thou, Lord, their captain in the well-fought fight;
thou, in the darkness drear, their one true light.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

3 O blest communion, fellowship divine!
We feebly struggle; they in glory shine;
yet all are one in thee, for all are thine.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

4 And when the strife is fierce,
the warfare long,
steals on the ear the distant triumph song,
and hearts are brave again, and arms are strong.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

5 From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast, through gates of pearl streams in the countless host, singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
Alleluia! Alleluia!

2 Thessalonians 1:1-4, 11-12

To the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

We must always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters, as is right, because your faith is growing abundantly and the love of every one of you for one another is increasing. Therefore we ourselves boast of you among the churches of God for your steadfastness and faith during all your persecutions and the afflictions that you are enduring.

To this end we always pray for you, asking that our God will make you worthy of his call and will fulfill by his power every good resolve and work of faith, so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Luke 19:1-10

He entered Jericho and was passing through it. A man was there named Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector and was rich. He was trying to see who Jesus was, but on account of the crowd he could not, because he was short in stature. So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree to see him, because he was going to pass that way. When Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, for I must stay at your house today." So he hurried down and was happy to welcome him. All who saw it began to grumble and said, "He has gone to be the guest of one who is a sinner." Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, "Look, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor, and if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I will pay back four times as much." Then Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because he, too, is a son of Abraham. For the Son of Man came to seek out and to save the lost."

Intentional Through the Week at Home and in Small Groups

My intention for this week is:

Morning Prayer for the Week

Thank you, God, for this new day.
On this day's path may I grow in faith
and increase in love, that I may be worthy of the call you have placed on my life.

Evening Prayer for the Week

The night is a gift from you, O God, a time of rest for the weary.
Forgive any unfaithfulness in me,
and grant me peace,
that I may rest easy, wholly trusting in you. Amen.

Readings for the Week Luke 19:1-10

(Read daily, and look for opportunities to discuss or contemplate these words)

Questions for Reflection

1. We sometimes imagine that we must earn God's love. In the story of Zacchaeus, however, Jesus offered companionship to him even before Zacchaeus made restoration to those he had cheated. Did he make amends as a requirement, or as the joyful response for receiving the love of Jesus? What makes "grace" grace?
2. Making amends is one of the steps of AA and other 12-step groups. However, making amends is only encouraged when doing so will not cause further harm. Why do you think that is an important caution?
3. Who have you harmed, intentionally or unintentionally? Are you able to make amends? What might that look like in your situation?

Intentionally Christian as a Congregation

- Consider getting a journal to record your intentions and experiences each week.
- Join in on the second and fourth Sundays at 5:30 p.m. for Intentionally Christian Conversations led by Pastor Judith or Ben Stewart.
- Think about sharing your intention or experience with Trinity friends in a small group, on a communal bulletin board in the narthex, or on the Trinity Facebook page.

Thank You to Bill and Charlotte Davnie

This morning, we give thanks for the ministry of Bill and Charlotte Davnie. The Davnies came to live here during COVID to help with their grandchildren's schooling and have stayed for a variety of reasons. During that time, Charlotte has taught Sunday School and Vacation Bible School and has gotten involved in many other aspects of the church. Bill has served Trinity as Parish Associate over these past 5 years, preaching, teaching, working with the Session, leading worship, and providing pastoral care. He served as Stated Supply Pastor during Judith's 2023 sabbatical.

There is so much more we could say, but the main thing to be said is that they are loved and will be missed.

We wish them well as they return to their home in Minneapolis, MN, and look forward to seeing them when they are back in Arlington to visit.

Classes and Spiritual Formation Opportunities

New Education Class this Sunday

Operation Allies Welcome:

Resettling Afghans to the United States

Kemper Gay will provide an overview and share her own personal experiences of the large-scale effort to resettle Afghans in America. The Class will be in the Lewis Room on November 2nd.

Next Sunday, November 9th: Zoom with Daoud Nassar from the West Bank

During next Sunday's 10:10 Sunday School Hour, we will have the opportunity to have a Zoom connection with affiliate member Daoud Nassar, who lives in the West Bank and is the founder of the Tent of Nations, an organization that promotes peaceful solutions to conflict and hosts visitors from all over the world. Visitors come for peace-making conferences and to help work the land on the Nassar Farm, which is under constant threat. The family has been in a 35-year legal process to keep their land amid growing Israeli settlements surrounding the property.

Trinity members have visited the land and Daoud has visited Trinity many times. He and his wife Jihan decided to become affiliate members as they consider Trinity their church in the United States. This presentation will be like the zoom call held during the Trinity Fall Retreat. We hope you will join us.

Stewardship Roundtable on November 16

On November 16th, Pastor Judith will lead a roundtable discussion on "Biblical Stewardship and Beyond." This will be a chance to hear some reflections on stewardship, and to ask any questions you may have about the stewardship materials that have been presented in the 2026 stewardship campaign.

Today, there are stewardship booklets available as well as copies of the stewardship letter for those who are not on the Trinity mailing list. Please read over these materials and bring your questions to the roundtable discussion on November 16, our Commitment Sunday.

Intentionally Christian Conversations

These are small group conversations based on our theme for the year. It might seem like a daunting idea to share with a group of people the intentions that you have set for yourself, but the intention (pun intended) is to have a place to discuss the sermon and the challenges of living an intentionally Christian life, something that we all need help and support to do.

The Conversations will happen on the 2nd & 4th Sundays of the month. The next will be October 26th @ 5:30 p.m., led by Pastor Judith in Classroom A. Feel free to drop by and join the conversation.

Meditation Group

The Meditation Group meets on Sunday, from 10:10 am to 11:00 am in the Meditation Room. We welcome new participants as we learn together the basic principles of meditation, with the intention of deepening our connection with God and with each other. Each week, we have a brief reading about meditation from various authors and faith traditions. We spend 20-30 minutes meditating and in silence. There is an opportunity to share within the group and a sending out to live our lives with greater compassion, harmony and peace. Please join us! For more info contact Sue Bodner at Suelwbod2@aol.com or 571-435-0417 (texting welcome).

Wednesday Bible Chat

Bible Chat is an informal Wednesday evening Bible Study that meets at 7:30 pm in Classroom A. There is no homework and no prior knowledge needed to get the most out of this at times fun, at times silly, and at times serious Book Study. No need to sign up, just show up when you can. If you have questions, contact Ben at Ben@trinityarlington.org.

Caregivers Support Group

This weekly Zoom call with other caregivers, Pastor Judith, and Katherine Nichols (Commissioned Ruling Elder), is a place to talk, get strength from each other, and pray. Weekly Zoom calls happen on Tuesdays, noon -1:00 p.m. Contact Pastor Judith to get on the email list or see the E-news or announcements in the church app for the Zoom link.

Mental Health Blog: The "Great Flex"

"Great Flex," that's what former West Virginia Governor Bob Wise labeled our times in an interview last month. We are still recovering from the pandemic, our wider social and political interactions are highly polarized, and the impact of AI is increasing in depth, rate, and significance. Any one of these, in Governor Wise's thinking, would be difficult to manage; all three are overwhelming.

4th and 5th Grade Group

We meet on the 1st Sunday of every month in the Fellowship Hall when we start back up this fall. Led by Ben and Keeley, the group aims to help our preteens get to know each other and prepare them for Youth Group with fun games and serious conversations.

Our next gathering is November 2 from 4:00 p.m. - 5:30 p.m. For more information, contact either Ben at Ben@trinityarlington.org or Keeley at youth@trinityarlington.org.

Ways to Serve in the Community and in the Church

Serving with S.O.M.E.

Trinity has been preparing breakfast for over 30+ years on the 3rd Monday of the month for SOME (So Others May Eat) in DC. They have recently completed a renovation of the kitchen, dining room, and building at 71 O Street NW. TPC resumed this local mission support back on December 16.

Breakfast preparation consists of 3-4 people arriving at 6:00 a.m. (finishing by 7:30 a.m.) and cooking eggs, sausages, grits, and other duties as needed. It's a great way to start the morning and support people in need. Visit the Sign Up Genius link to volunteer - for more information, contact Todd Parker (703-237-7699).

Angel Tree 2025

We are kicking off TPC's annual Angel Tree program. The very successful program last year provided over $4,000 in gift cards to Hamm Middle School students and families, and helped Drew Elementary School deliver over 150 coats, 200 books, and 150 games to their students.

This year, we will again raise funds for gift cards for Hamm Middle School students through Trinity's Giving site (<https://tpcarlington.churchtrac.com/give>), and encourage the congregation and preschool families to participate in Drew Elementary School's winter coat and toys/games drive.

Two differences this year: (1) Drew has combined its two drives into one Amazon gift list of both coats and books, and games. (2) Should families prefer not to use Amazon, MSM will accept at TPC any items identified on the Amazon list, and we will deliver them to Drew. Look for bins in the narthex and preschool hall.

Please see the flyer above from Drew -- they ask that coats arrive by November 17th and books and games arrive by December 15th. The URL for the gift list is: https://www.amazon.com/hz/wishlist/ls/3VH9T4RPGG9EO?ref=wl_share
